At Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Ohio, we believe it is our duty to unearth, foster and develop the incredible potential inherent in every child.

As part of the nation’s largest donor and volunteer supported mentoring network, we make meaningful matches between adult volunteers (“Bigs”) and youth (“Littles”) ages 5 through young adulthood. As facilitators we support the development of strong relationships that have a direct and lasting effect on the lives of young people. The agency offers environmental education and leadership programs at Camp Oty’Okwa, a property located in the Hocking Hills, and serves as a resource and capacity builder for other mentoring organizations through MENTOR Central Ohio.

MISSION VISION

MISSION Create and support one-to-one mentoring relationships that ignite the power and promise of youth.

“My favorite thing about Spencer is that he is very encouraging and supportive. He always believes in me and is always pushing me to be the best at what I do and to have high goals.”

— LITTLE BROTHER HANS
Last summer over 2,000 kids experienced the magic of Camp Oty’Okwa, our 777-acre residential camp in the heart of the Hocking Hills. In response to social distancing restrictions prohibiting large gatherings, we were unable to host our weekly in-person sessions so we strategically pivoted to offer virtual camp. Campers connected with each other over daily cabin meetings using Zoom. Through a variety of interactive videos, they went on virtual hikes, explored streams, enjoyed bedtime stories, and continued the traditions of the campfire.

Our MENTOR Central Ohio department supports community development by elevating the quality and quantity of mentoring across our area. Through consulting and training, they help build capacity, sustainability, and safety to fill the gap between resources and youth in our community.

Big Brother and Little Brother of the Year

When Peggy signed her grandson Jaylin up for a Big Brother, she believed he could benefit from a program that would give him an outlet to leave behind the thoughts and fears of his circumstances. If only for a few hours a month, she wanted him to have the opportunity to be a kid. Matt Barnes grew up in a household where he felt loved and supported everyday. He had many teachers, coaches, and professors who significantly impacted him during his formative years and it is these mentors that inspired him to want to do the same.

Little Brother Jaylin and Big Brother Matt were matched in March 2016 and their story is certainly a testament to the human spirit, demonstrating that no matter where you start, with the right support anything is possible.

Recognized by Big Brothers Big Sisters of America as the 2020 Big Brother and Little Brother of the Year you can view their story here: HTTPS://YOUTUBE/ONKU7AAJTO

“I appreciate everything Matt has done for me and how he’s helped me grow as a man, especially in this type of society.” — LITTLE BROTHER JAYLIN

Big Hero

Big Sister Katie-Lynn Dheel was named a BIG Hero by The Columbus Foundation. Katie-Lynn became a Big because she wanted to use her down time to have an impact and that’s exactly what she’s done.

During the stay at home order, Katie-Lynn became aware that her Little sister’s family had some unmet needs so she sprung into action, mobilizing her family and friends to help.

With the support she was able to raise, Katie-Lynn loaded up her SUV with groceries, essential items, and even hay for the family’s pet rabbit. Her Little Sister’s family was exceptionally grateful and Katie-Lynn was overwhelmed by the way her family and friends stepped up to help.

“I would have been more than understanding with some well-wishes and maybe even some donated dry goods, but the response I got instilled a new hope in me for the future, and helped me realize how easy it can be to make a difference in someone’s life.”
Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Ohio has maintained strong and sustained financial stability. The financial support from our many investors and supporters allows us to provide our programs and services, which in turn allows us to ignite the potential of central Ohio youth. Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Ohio is an independent 501(c)(3).
